As a member of the group you will have access to information, either in the original form or copy including electronic or digital. The group does not own any of this and its use and record keeping is subject to a variety of copyright, license and other agreements. A condition of membership therefore is that any such information will be used for research purposes only within the group, and you will not copy or send to anyone who is not a member, and you will not use it for financial gain in any sense. This condition applies when membership has ceased, when any such data you may hold should be returned. You may of course apply to the owner of the property directly for access outside the remit of Holcombe Moor Heritage group.

By applying for membership or renewal you confirm your understanding of the use of information and agree to be bound by its terms and conditions. Our Privacy Policy can be found at www.holcombemoorheritagegroup.org.
